Title: DAYS OF TROUBLE

Main Text: Psalm 94

Aim: TO REASSURE THE SAINTS & TO GLORIFY GOD PROCLAIMING HIS TIMELY JUDGEMENTS

Sermon Description: Psalm 94 is the second in a set of 8 songs that magnify and proclaim the universal lordship of Yahwey. His majesty is set forth in these songs of exaltation reminding the citizens of mere earthly kingdoms that their hope is secure in the ultimate King. Psalm 94 declares specifically and extensively that our God is the true and powerful judge of the earth. His day of reckoning may appear slow to arrive especially during times of affliction for the righteous, but His coming is nevertheless certain and decisive. No evil will escape His justice. Psalm 94 provides a source of reassuring hope for the truly oppressed. Reminding them to pledge their allegiance and direct their fear to the highest king. As Psalm 82 echoes... The worship value of a song like this reminds believers in every age this side of the eschaton that our strongest fears and highest allegiance belong with the King of Kings, and should not be directed to any earth,t administration. No matter if we are enjoying a period of relative peace, or is we find ourselves suffering days of trouble like the psalmist, our messianic hope is found in Jesus Christ alone...
